

eCall implementation for Heavy Goods Vehicles, 4 and 5 July, Rotterdam

Tuesday July 4th : State of the art, technical discussions, standards.

9:30 Registration & Coffee

10:00 Welcome, Mr Tomas de Laat, Ministry of Infrastructure and Environment

10:10 Keynote speech Andy Rooke, Ertico I-HeERO Program Manager

10:20 Introduction to the program, Jan van Hattem, Rijkswaterstaat

10:30 Morning session Harold Linke , Hitec

- Overview and demonstrations of HGV eCall implementations by members, partners and suppliers of the I-HeERO project.
- Exchange of experiences, tools used, available and test products, present IVS, PSAP, Freight databases.

12:00 Discussion

12:30 Details of applicable standards EN15722 and EN 16405 gathering of experiences, Frank Maas

13:00 Lunch

14:00 I-HeERO activity 2 results, Gorazd Marinc , IRU supported by activity 2 members

- Presentation of new integrations
- Interoperability issues
- Connecting and retrieving information from external data sources.

15:30 Questions of trust: Access rights and security issues that need to be addressed.

16:00 Use of Eucaris in exchanging freight data between 112/PSAP and freight data source, RDW Idske Dijkstra

16:20 HGV eCall EC Project team 1507, Egil Bovim

16:40 Standardisation: present implementation, testbed and registry, roadmap and future steps CEN WG15 on eCall Bob Williams,

17:00 Overview of lessons learned - discussion and input for tomorrow's sessions.

17:30 Conclusion

19:00 Dinner

Organised by: Rijkswaterstaat, Water Verkeer en Leefomgeving, afd. Veiligheid, Lange Kleiweg 34, 2288 GK Rijswijk, Ir. J. van Hattem mba, Tel: 06 4673 2271 Mail: Jan.van.hattem@rws.nl

This event is organised by Rijkswaterstaat in close cooperation with ERTICO-ITS Europe, the I_HeERO project activity 2 managed by IRU, and Bob Williams CEN standardisation working group 15

Event Location: STC-events, Wilhelminakade 701, 3072 AP Rotterdam

Registration: <https://hgv-ecall-4-5july-rotterdam.eventbrite.nl>

Wednesday July 5th : Getting it to the road: demonstrations and requirements

- 9:30 Registration & Coffee
- 10:00 Welcome, wrap up of yesterday's results, Jan van Hattem
- 10:10 Options for triggering and retrieving Vehicle data, Route42 Max den Dopper
- 10:30 Available information from vehicle registration, Eucaris data exchange, Idske Dijkstra RDW
- 10:50 Coffee Break and demonstrations
- 11:50 Vision Joint meeting UNECE Telematica and the Transport of dangerous goods, UNECE WG 15
- 12:25 Comparison and discussion of possible approach to a common approach, Henk Langeberg Ministry of Infrastructure and Environment
- 12:40 Lunch and chance to visit new Emergency room Safety Region Rotterdam
- 13:45 Preparing for implementation, special moderator
Presentation of stakeholder standpoints by their representatives focussing on their interest, requirements, and contribution to realisation, time schedule.
- Emergency services and Incident management (fire brigade, safety regions)
 - Road transport authorities and Traffic management services
 - Consigners: Medical, Chemical & fuel industry, others
 - Transport companies
 - Transport organisations
 - Truck Manufacturers
 - Insurance industry
 - Emergency Rooms, 112 PSAP
 - Freight systems
- 15:00 Overview and discussion of stimulating factors, Obstacles, Technical issues, timing issues
- 15:30 Requirements for large scale implementation HGV eCall
- Technical issues
 - Next actions to get HGV eCall to work either on voluntary or obligatory basis
 - Political issues
 - Time schedule, agreements
- 16:30 Closing of the program
- 16:45 Drinks

Organised by: Rijkswaterstaat, Water Verkeer en Leefomgeving, afd. Veiligheid, Lange Kleiweg 34, 2288 GK Rijswijk, Ir. J. van Hattem mba, Tel: 06 4673 2271 Mail: Jan.van.hattem@rws.nl

This event is organised by Rijkswaterstaat in close cooperation with ERTICO-ITS Europe, the I_HeERO project activity 2 managed by IRU, and Bob Williams CEN standardisation working group 15

Event Location: STC-events, Wilhelminakade 701, 3072 AP Rotterdam

Registration: <https://hgv-ecall-4-5july-rotterdam.eventbrite.nl>